

Machinery Safety

Workplace accidents can occur as a combination of unsafe conditions and unsafe acts. With the right training, they can easily be prevented ensuring that employees remain safe and the workplace remains secure and productive.

Course Content

- ◆ Machine safety mechanisms
- ◆ Types of machines used in garments and footwear and their hazards
- ◆ Control measures and inspection
- ◆ Communicating importance of machine safety messages
- ◆ Improvement plan for machine safety

Learning Objectives

- ◆ Understand machine safety in the workplace
- ◆ Recognise the hazards caused by machines
- ◆ Understanding of accidents/illness caused by machines
- ◆ Apply controls to reduce machinery risk
- ◆ Develop a machine safety checklist

Benefits

- ◆ Decreased workplace accidents, illnesses or death due to better systems to prevent accidents and illnesses
- ◆ Decreased costs related to property damage
- ◆ Reduced legal and healthcare costs associated with workplace accidents

Participants

Managers, Supervisors
& Workers

Class Size
25 per class

Venue
BFC Office or Factory

Duration
1 day, 08:30 - 16:30

International
Labour
Organization

IFC International
Finance Corporation
WORLD BANK GROUP

Registration

Better Factories Cambodia Office
No. 9 St 322, Phnom Penh

Email: bfctraining@ilo.org
Tel: +855 23 212 847 / 23 220 362